JOBE

THE JOBE SUP VISION

Our mission is to get more people on the water. To succeed in that mission, Jobe has taken an unique position in the market. The reason for that is succeeding in getting more people on the water takes a careful combination of complementary factors.

The first and most important factor is having unique products. Jobe's experience in the watersport industry has led to our current and distinctive SUP-assortment. This assortment is carefully composited of products with the sole purpose of succeeding in our mission: getting people on the water. Jobe SUP boards are very lightweight – making sure its takes no effort for people to travel to the water. Jobe Aero SUP boards come in an easy-to-carry waterproof drybag – making sure travelling with your board towards the water is easy. Jobe's innovations like the new shape for bamboo SUPs or the all-in-one paddle bag are doing the same – making SUP more accessible.

Succeeding in the mission of this distinctive assortment can only happen if this is strengthened by a strong communication strategy. Therefore Jobe has a strategy that one can expect of an internationally successful brand. This strategy starts with an unique brand identity and is carried out all the way to the appearance of the brand at your shop. Making sure every step in a customer's journey is successfully covered.

THE JOBE SUP STRATEGY

---

Making SUP more accessible and getting people on the water takes a brand identity that is appealing and fits with this mission. Jobe stands for having fun on the water. We are enthusiastic about what we do and it is what makes us a young brand. Our before mentioned innovations make us innovative and a specialist in the market, all with the sole purpose of making SUP accessible. These passwords are carried out in everything we do: from communicating in a strong and distinctive visual style, bringing SUP to the people and introducing it at unexpected and original locations, to collaborating with image-strengthening partners and producing interesting content and targeting it towards this group. This group often has special characteristics, making sure all communication is as persuasive as possible for them: people that enjoy outdoor trips and holidays are specifically targeted, just like people that are living a, currently very popular, active and healthy lifestyle.

JOBE SUP IN YOUR SHOP

---

An important aspect of carrying out the brand's mission and identity is through Jobe's appearance in your shop. The most important step in a customer's journey with Jobe and its products, the actual purchase, takes place in your shop. Jobe continuously puts a lot of effort in persuading the consumer in every phase of its journey with the brand, including this phase that takes place inside your shop. Therefore we develop special materials that will persuade the consumer and move him to make the actual purchase. These materials include product displays, marketing materials, branding and giveaways which are all tailored to the specific needs of your shop and the assortment you have. Carrying out Jobe's efforts in the brand's total instore presence will therefore lead to successfully covering the last and most important step in the customer journey: selling the product. Together we can get everyone on the water!

Curious how this translates to your shop? Read on to chapter 'Promotional products' or check joe.jobesports.com to see all Jobe instore presence options.

NO MATTER WHAT WE DO

At Jobe we like consistency. A brand is more than a fancy slogan and spreading a catalog. It's the feeling people get when they see our products. More importantly: we want them to recognize our perfectionism and associate it with our passion for watersports. Our Jobe Brand Code: the Seven Passwords, are the guiding theme when we communicate our story. Jobe is fun, accessible, young, innovative, a specialist, enthusiastic and international. The code is not here to curb creativity – more to be unique in this competitive world. We incorporate our passwords in our everyday communications, photos and our packaging. Colors, design and texts. Jobe is Jobe. Everywhere we go.

NO MATTER WHAT WE DO

ALWAYS BRAND CODE PROOF

OUR JOBE BRAND CODE
IS THE GUIDING THEME WHEN WE COMMUNICATE OUR STORY.
