PRO-TEC YO HEAD

Founded in 1973, Pro-Tec is the original action sports protective gear brand, featuring the market's most recognizable style of helmets. Pro-Tec designs are often imitated but never truly duplicated; that's because no other action sports brand has 45-years of heritage producing the most stylish protective gear.

Modern Skateboarding was born in the backyard pools and homemade ramps of the 70's and skaters have always sought out the gnarliest places to practice their craft. Living up to its name, Pro-Tec has always existed to protect those who push the limits, supporting both top-level pros and beginners alike. Current Pro-Tec pros Steve Caballero and Christian Hosoi were photographed in the early 80's wearing Pro-Tec helmets and legendary photographers of the sport have even earlier photos proving yet again Pro-Tec is truly the original skate helmet.

Like the company itself, the Pro-Tec Skate Team is a reflection of our legendary product. The brand finds depth with living legends Steve Caballero, Christian Hosoi, Mark Gonzales and Jason Jessee, X-Game and Dew tour champions Bucky Lasek, Jimmy Wilkins and Sam Beckett. Alex Perelson, Josh Borden and Lizzie Armanto represent more contemporary rippers, while Tate Carew, Jordyn Barratt and Brighton Zeuner represent the next generation of superstars.

BUCKY LASEK

BUCKY/OLD SCHOOL

The Old School was modified from the original 1973 Full-Tec and Pro Skateboarder Bucky Lasek popularized it with his signature translucent colors in the very flexible HDPE plastic. The more round shape almost molds to any shape head. It's known for its deep fit and aggressively low silhouette. The Old School available in ABS plastic still carries the low profile and look while allowing for new graphic opportunities. Both feature our 2-stage premium Dri-Lex wrapped liner that everyone loves for its comfort and moisture wicking properties.
